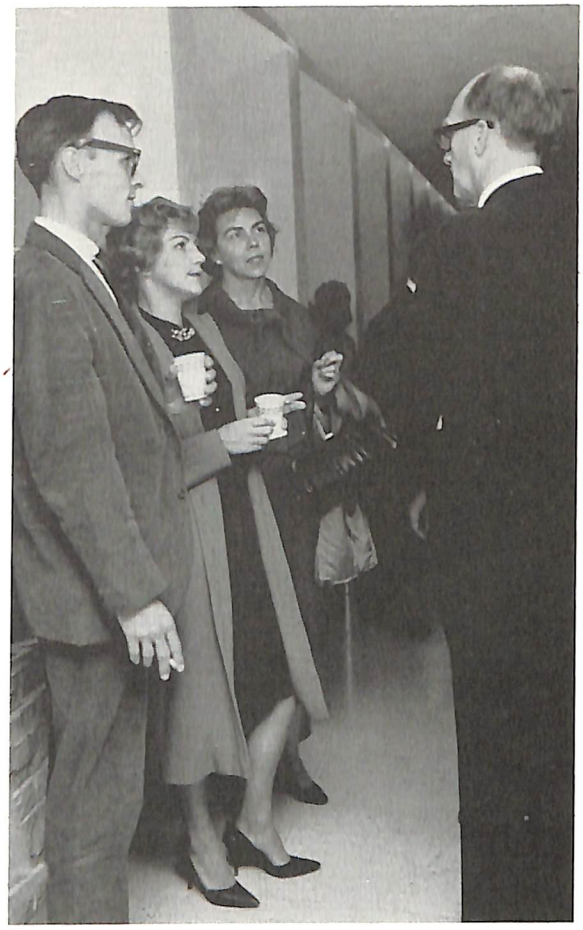
HISTORY OF ART

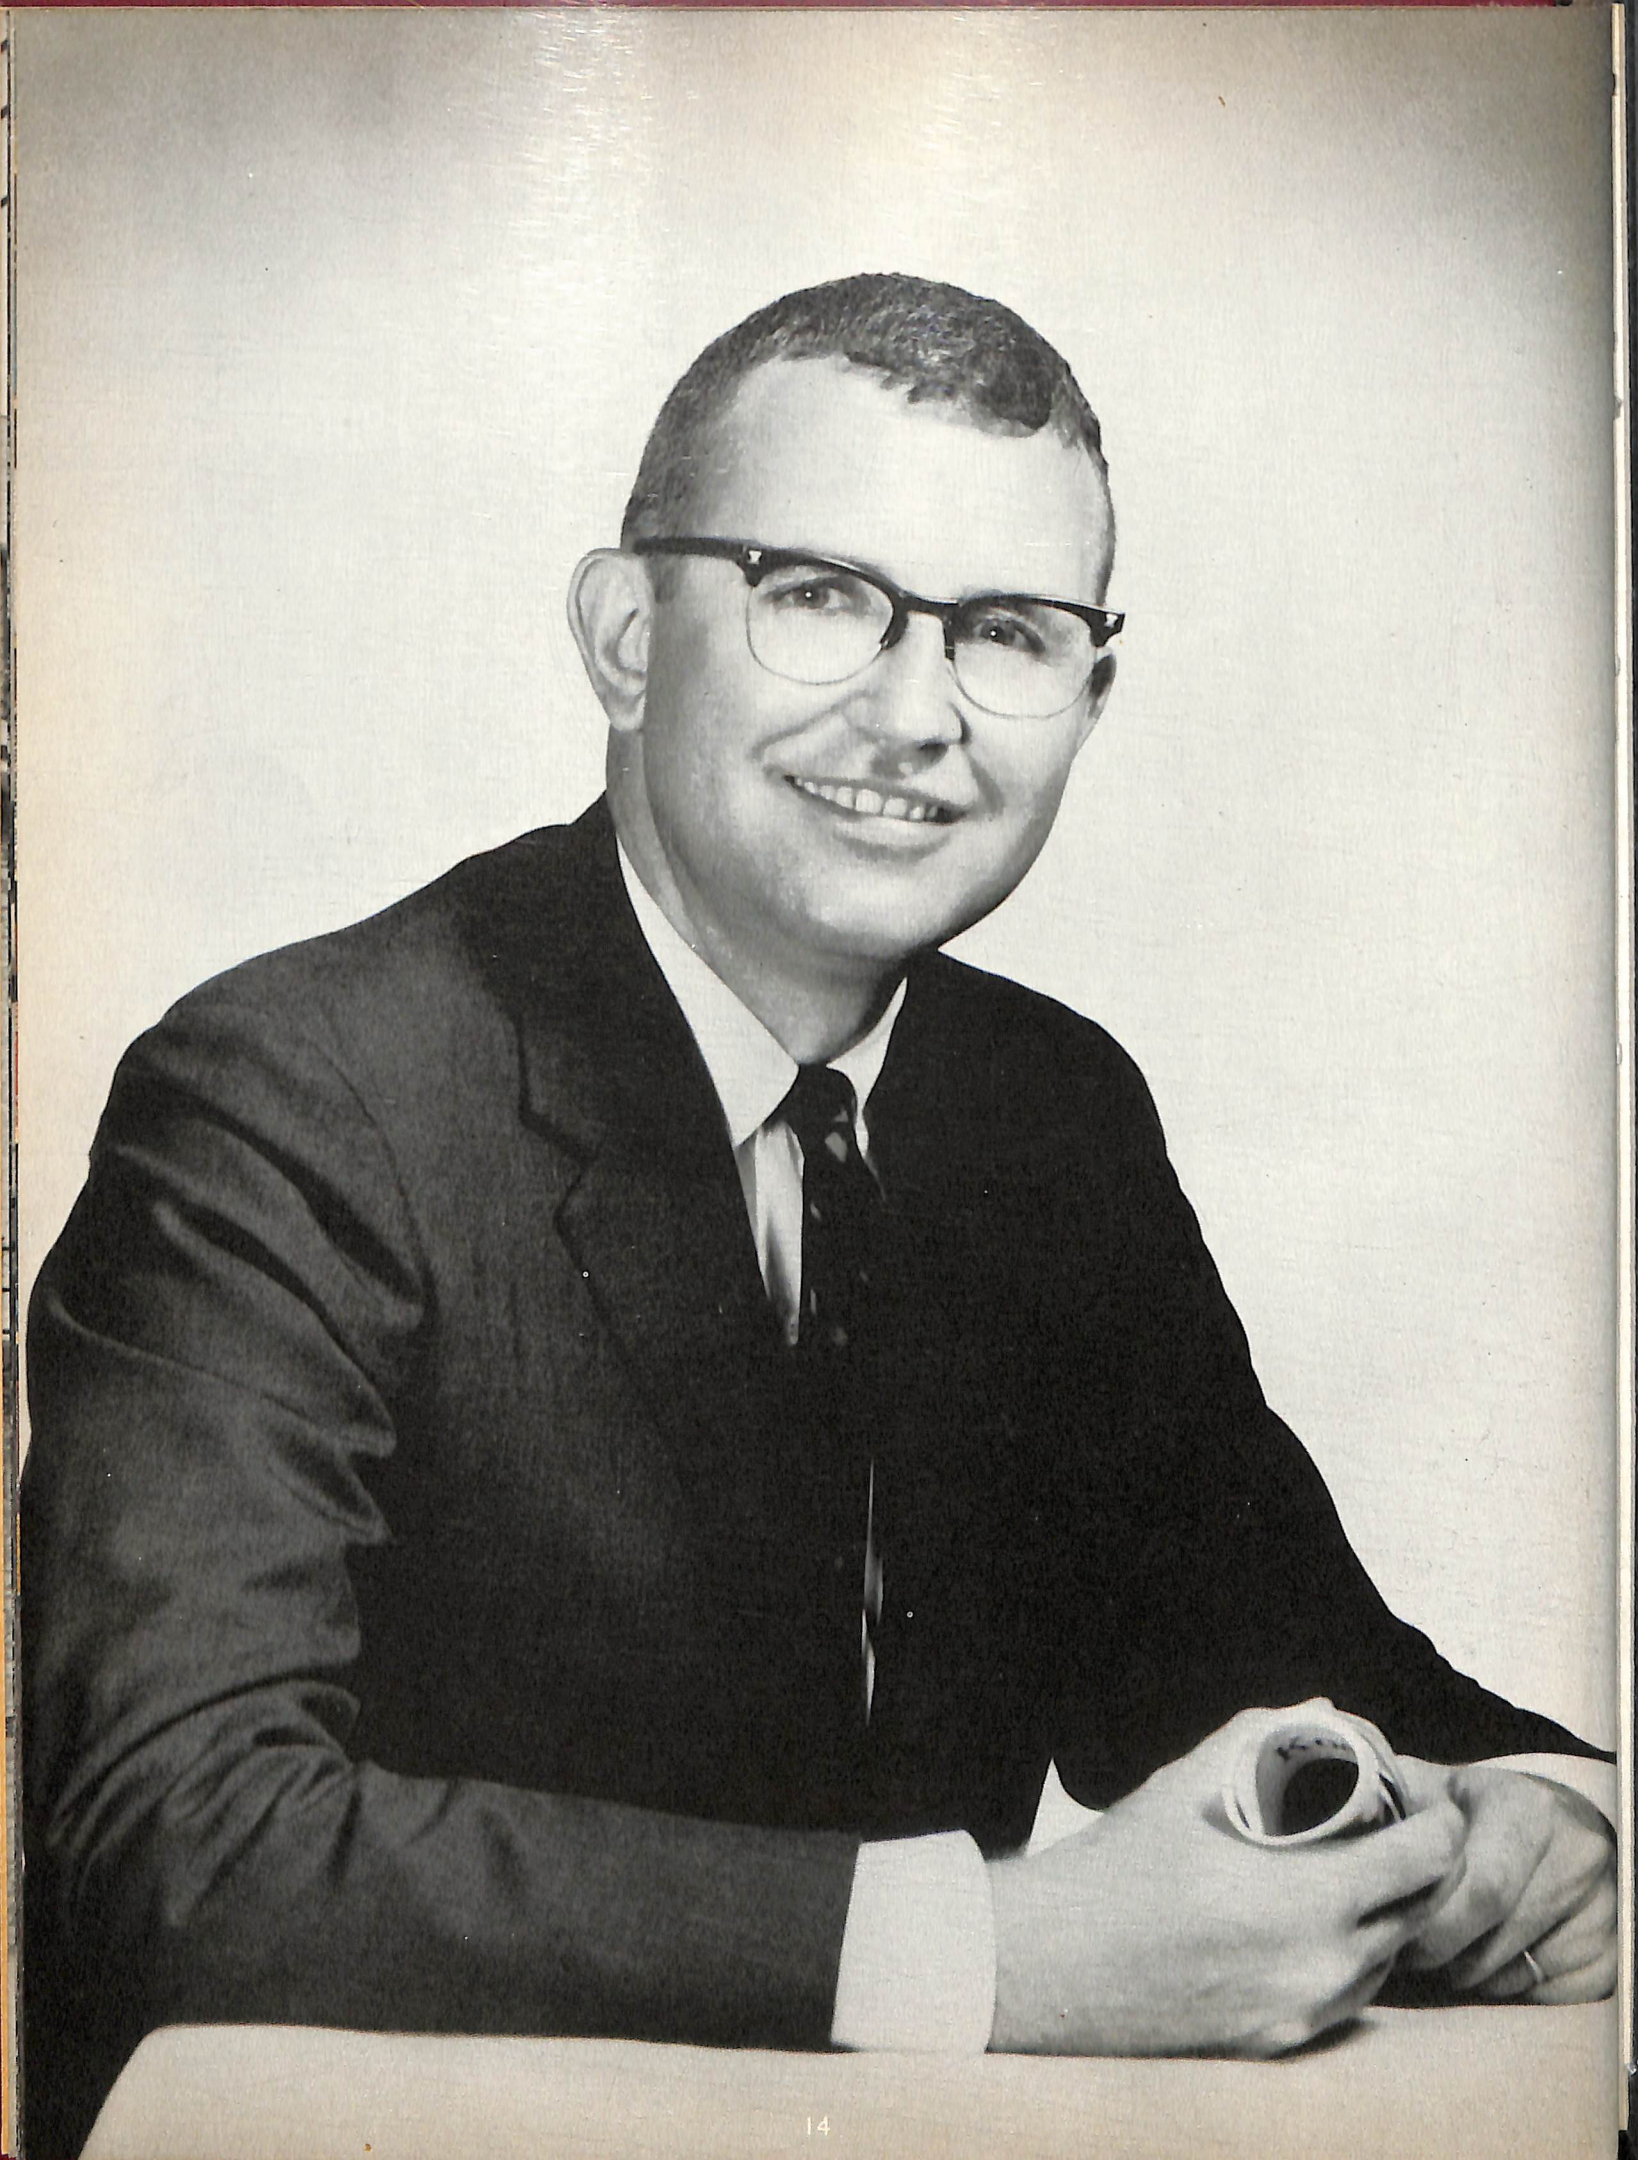
Dedication



Whether we are College students or Preparatory School students, whether our acquaintance with you has been no more than a simple and friendly hello in the halls or an informal discussion in your office, we all consider ourselves privileged to have been associated in some way, large or small, with one whose wisdom, whose loyalty, whose friendly manner has become a tradition at Monticello.

In these crisis years, when we struggle for recognition as maturing individuals—sometimes intemperate in our haste, other times too timid to move—we find ourselves looking to you for an example and for a friendly word of advice.

From those of us in the College to whom you have been an example, and from your particular charges in the Preparatory School; because of your active interest in a growing Monticello, because of your personal interest in helping us become the young women of our ideals; we dedicate the 1965 ECHO to you, Mrs. Marguerite Shewman.



Welcome

Mrs. Haines greets her guests

President and Mrs. Haines greet new students

The fall of 1964 marked the introduction of Dr. John Haines as the Tenth President of Monticello. A graduate of Springfield College, Springfield, Massachusetts, and Columbia University, New York, New York. Dr. Haines was formerly assistant to the President of Union College.

At the age of 35 Dr. Haines has already accumulated 11 years of first-hand administrative knowledge and his forward looking policies promise a bright future for Monticello.

We wish great success and many pleasant memories of Monticello to the Haines family.

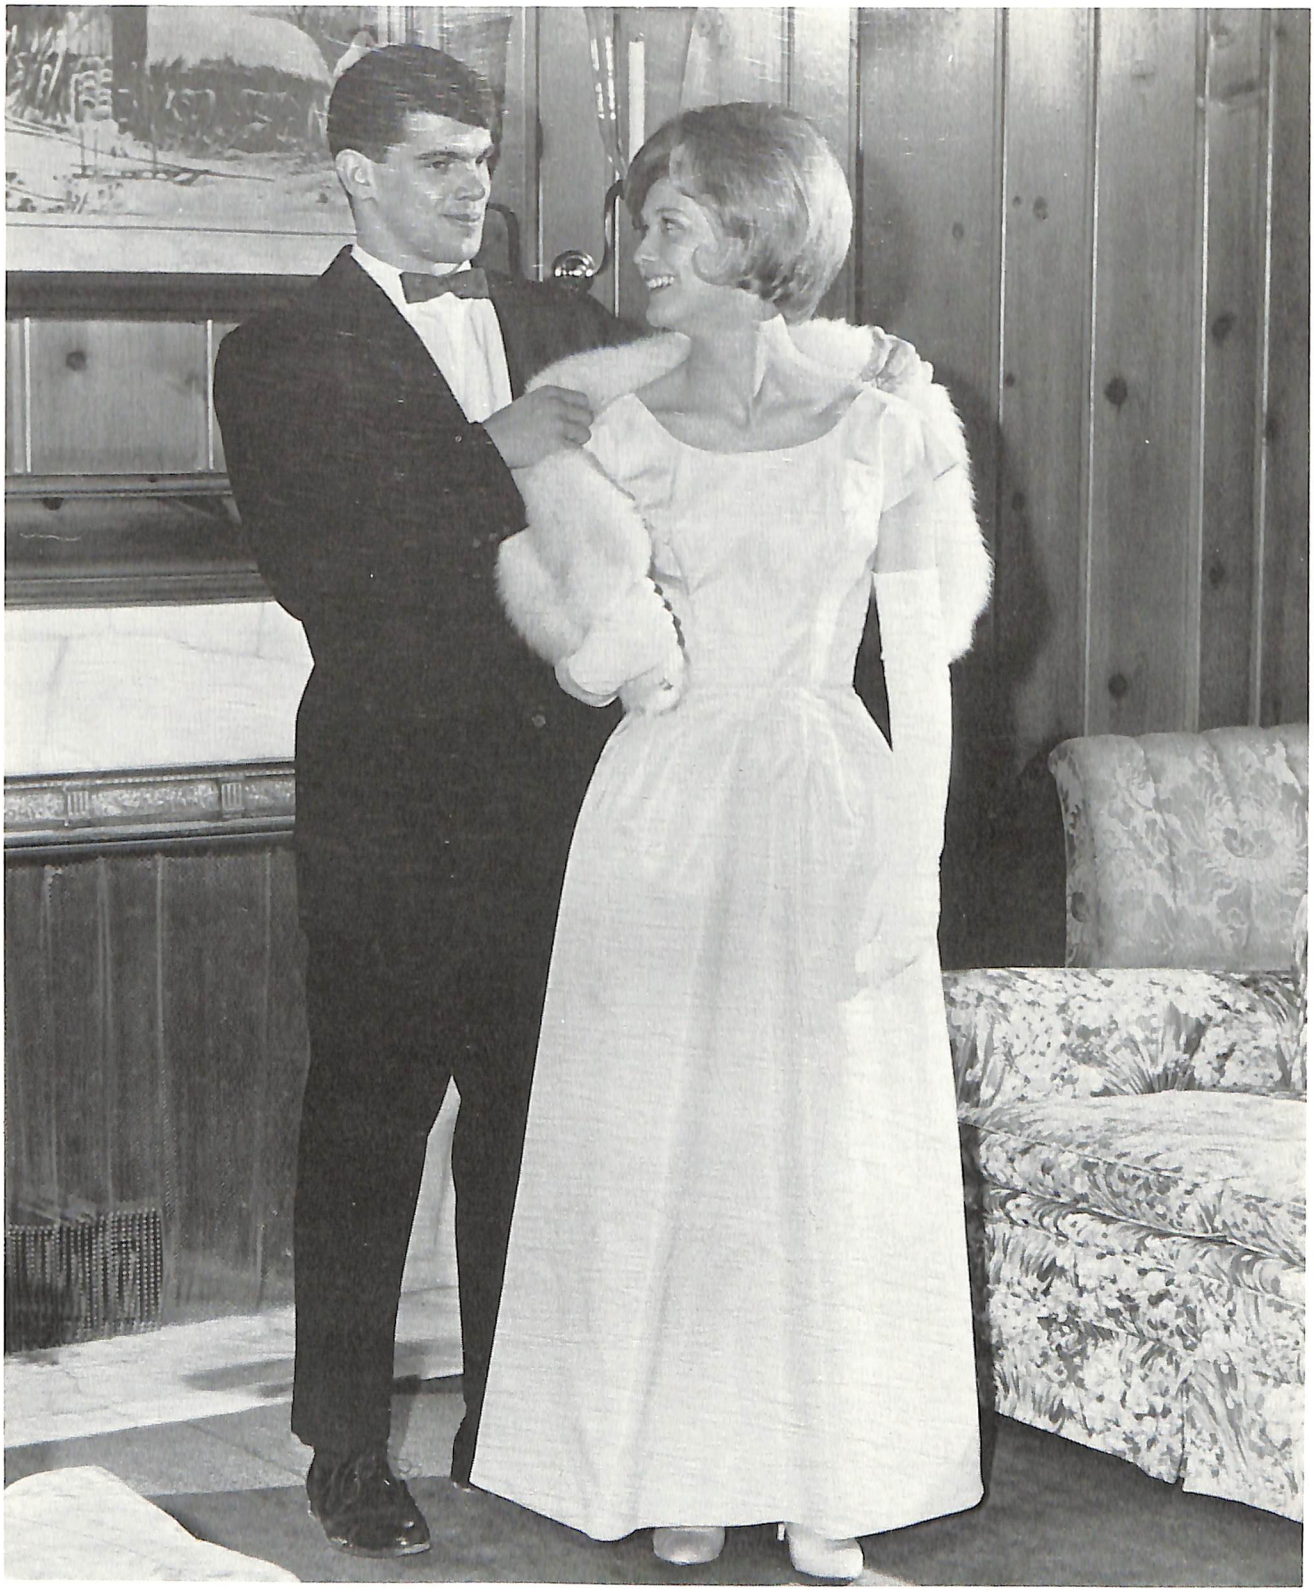
Monticello Was Founded in 1835 as a Female Seminary Preparing Young Women for Gracious Living, for Further Academic Work, and for a Lifetime of Successful Relationships With Their Families and Communities. It Is a Tradition, Therefore, That Our Education in the Preparatory School Not Only Develops Our Minds for Further Study, but Also Instills in Us a Sense of Warmth, Dignity, and Femininity.

Ideals

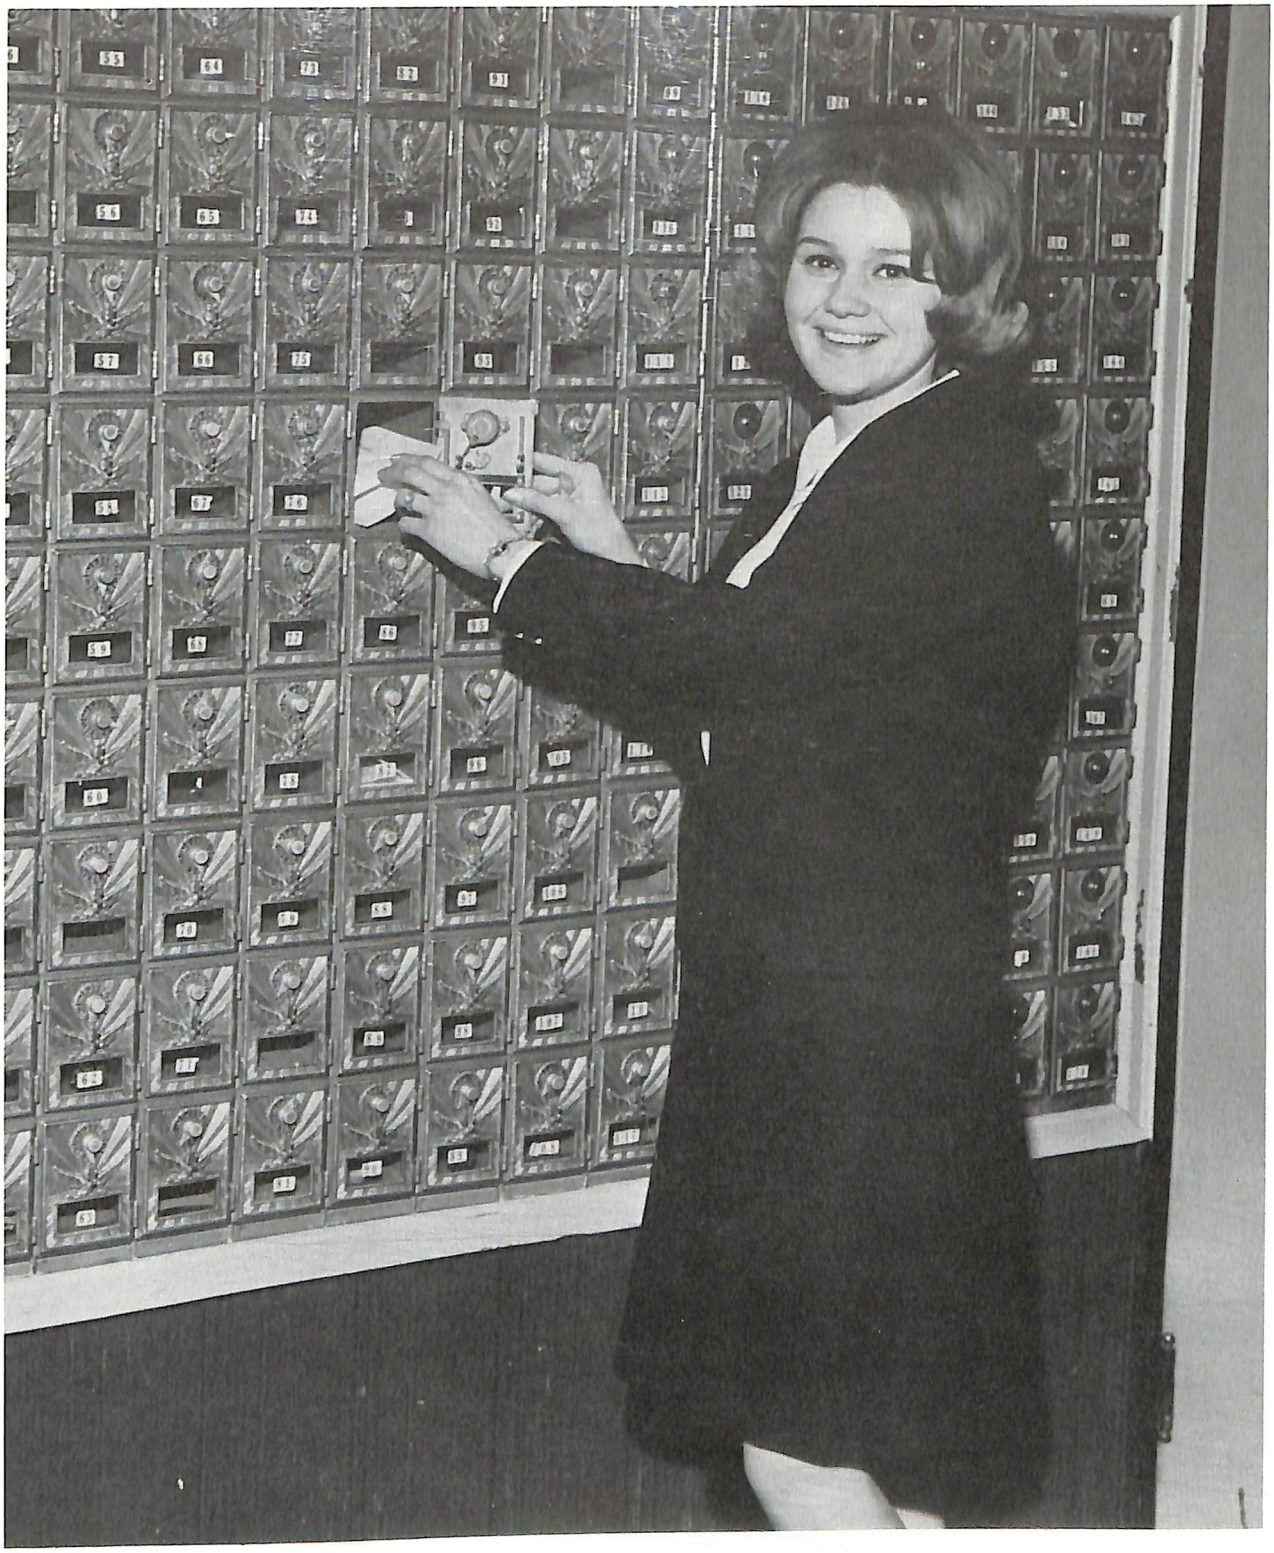


Beauty — Andrea DeLana

The ideal Beauty at Monticello signifies a person who is beautiful at all times; in first-hour class, on weekday evenings, as well as on a date or at a formal. Beauty at Monticello goes deeper than physical appearance: it is natural. This ideal is beautiful in action, in words, and in relationship with others. A Monti beauty is beauty, not only at first sight, but continually, in every facet of her personality.

"She walks in beauty, like the night of cloudless climes and starry skies;
And all that's best of dark and bright, meet in her aspect and her eyes."

Lord Byron

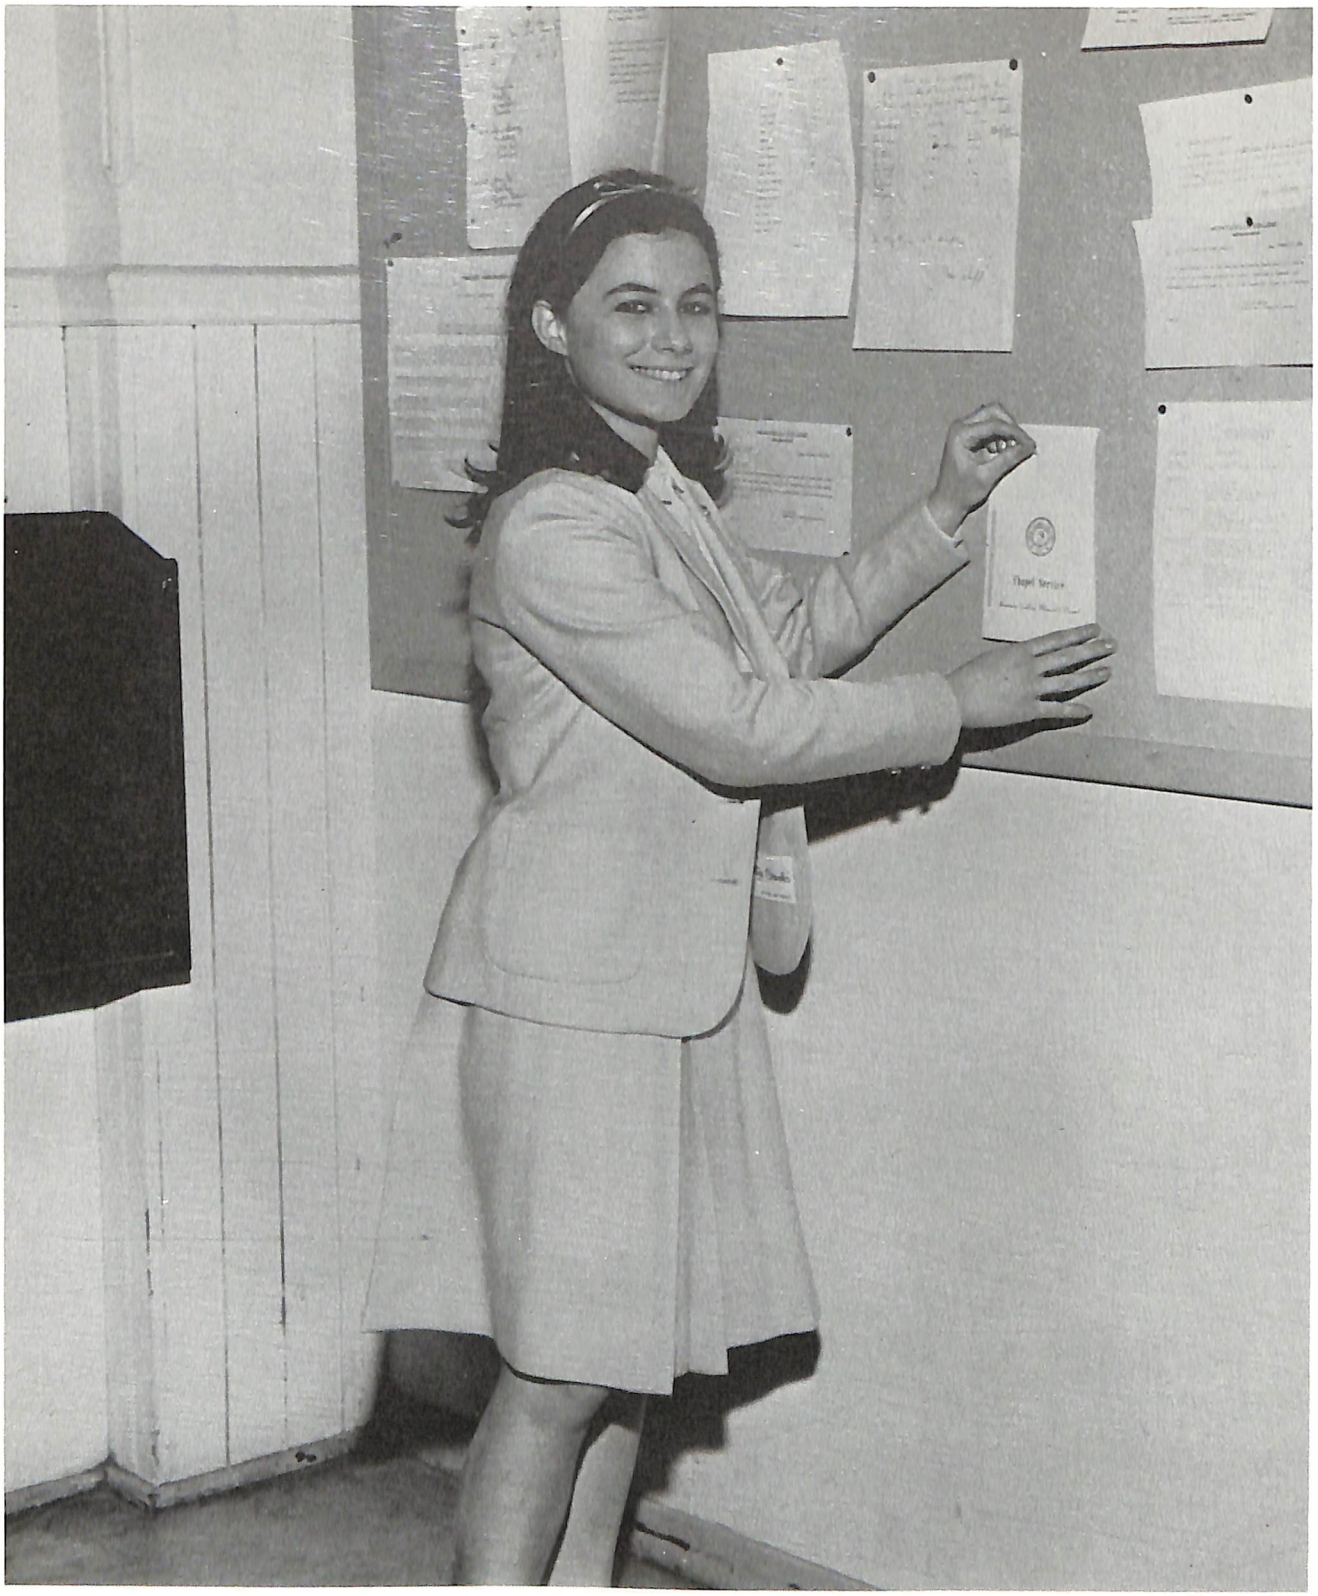


Personality — Jarona Mullinix

The ideal Personality at Monticello is a person who is friendly, polite, cheerful, and cooperative at all times, with everyone. She projects a first impression of natural congeniality that does not dim with longer acquaintance. Her lively personality is reflected in everything she does; her school work, her relationship with the faculty and other adults, her dorm life, and her social life.

"The shortest and surest way to live with honor in the world, is to be in reality what we would appear to be; all human virtues increase and strengthen themselves by the practice and experience of them."

Socrates



Versatility — Leigh Spillers

The ideal Versatility at Monticello is represented by a person who is active in all phases of school work. She is not necessarily a leader in many activities, but she is able to adapt to any situation, and do any job, whether it is decorating for a dance or playing basketball or writing a term paper. She likes to do many things and enjoys all aspects of Monti life.

"As land is improved by sowing it with various seeds, so is the mind by exercising it with different studies."

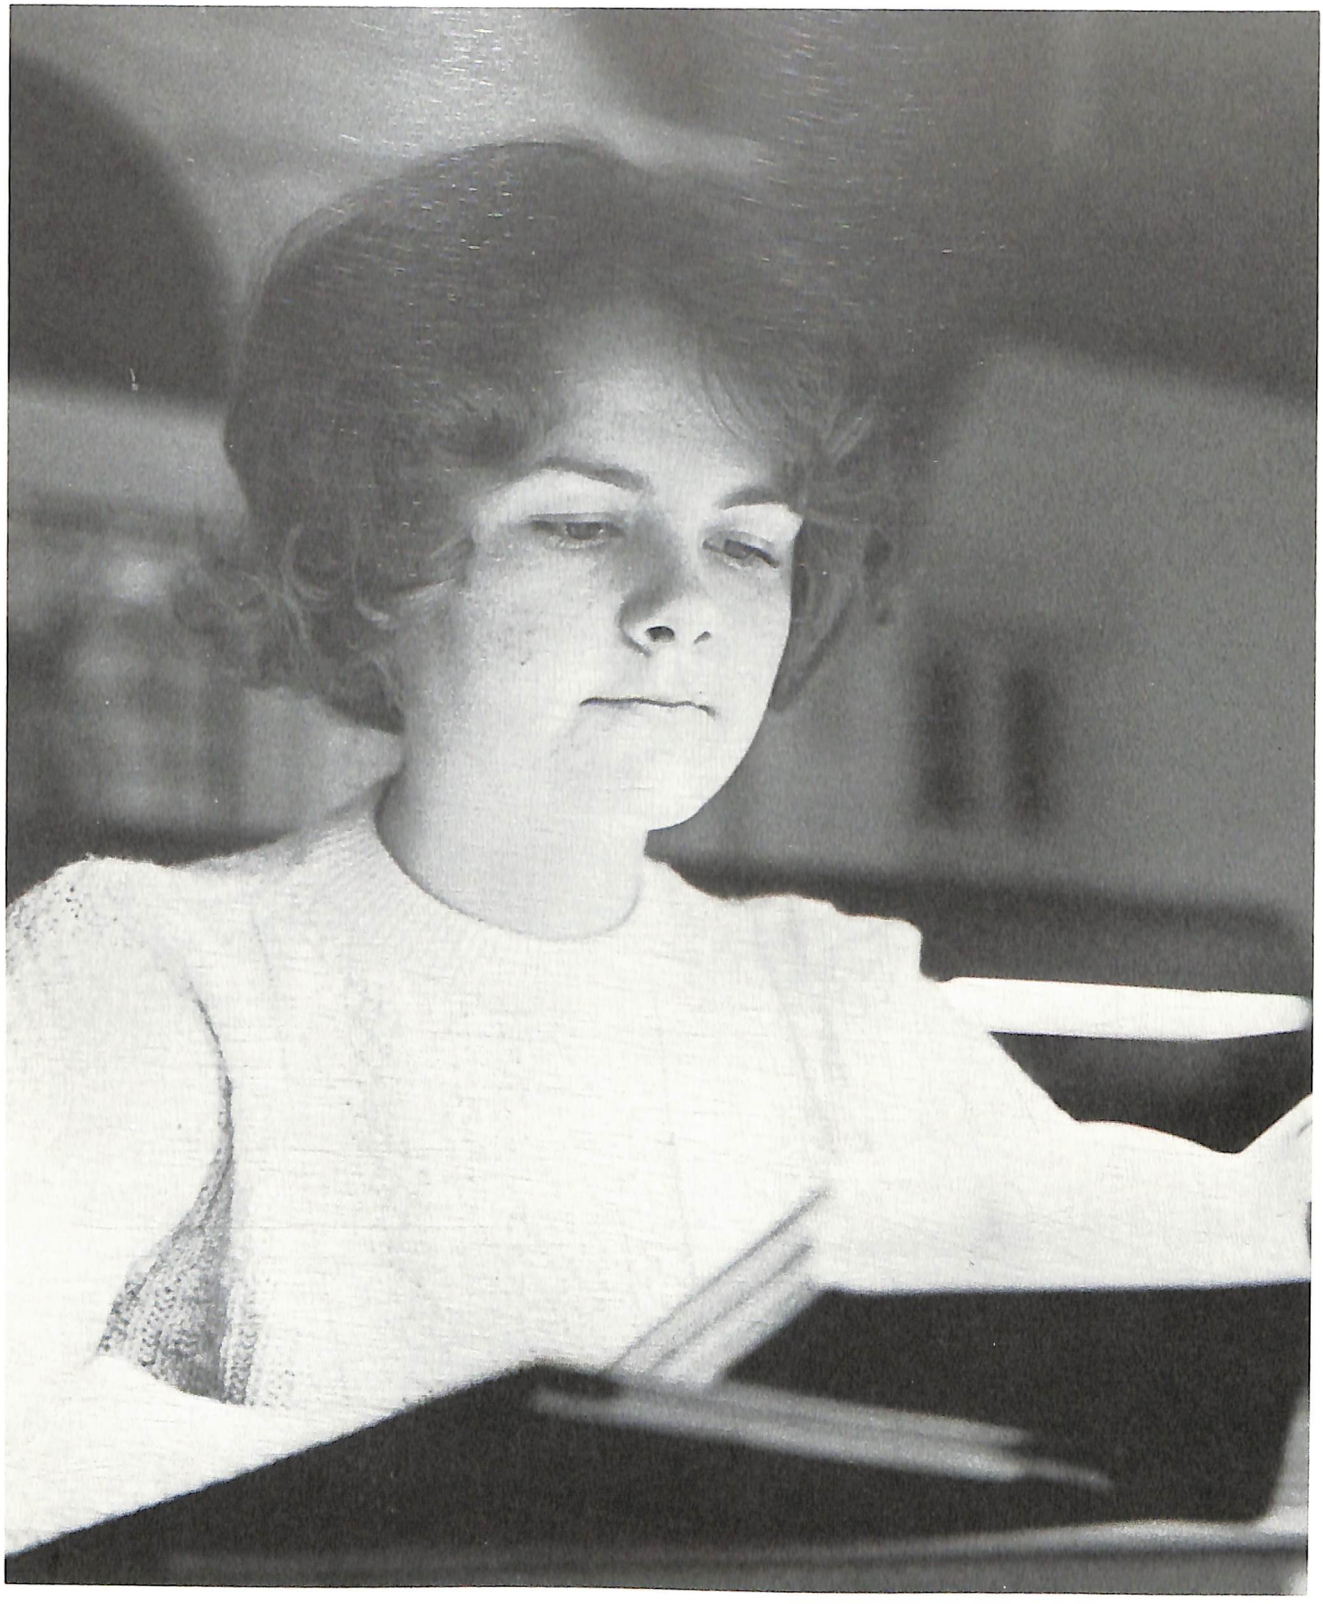
Pliny

Service — Jane Clark

The ideal Service at Monticello is a person who is willing to help anyone, anytime. She works for her fellow students, the faculty and staff. She works on varied projects, as well as serving as a guide to her fellow students. Because of her dedication to others, the serves all Monticello.

"We live in a world which is full of misery and ignorance, and the plain duty of each and all of us is to try to make the little corner he can influence somewhat less miserable and somewhat less ignorant than it was before he entered it."

Thomas Huxley



Knowledge — Eva Mae McMahan

The ideal Knowledge at Monticello is one who has achieved a high level of scholastic achievement, someone who has the intelligence and will to learn all she can in school. She also has a fair knowledge of everything, a product of an inquisitive and broad mind. She knows how to handle her affairs with other students, and with the world. She possesses knowledge, uses it well, and has a never-ending will to know more.

"Real knowledge, like everything else of value, is not to be obtained easily. It must be worked for, studied for, thought for, and prayed for."

M.R.A. Representative Cathy Forbush presents the Field Day plaque to Senior Class President Linda Green.

Field Day

Ready for the big toss, Spillers?

The Juniors were good losers?

The Seniors couldn't possibly lose, could they?

Scrambled eggs, anyone?

Are you going out for another painful romp with Sylvester, Mae?

Riddle and Dennis, did you bid that slam?

"Follow the Drinking Gourd"

Gilman Life

DeLana and Green-Green are leaving the kitchen the way they found it.

This won't last forever.

No wonder they took the phone booths out.

Haskell Life

Third floor celebrates Christmas in the proper fashion.

Boynton and Yant studying in the study smoker?

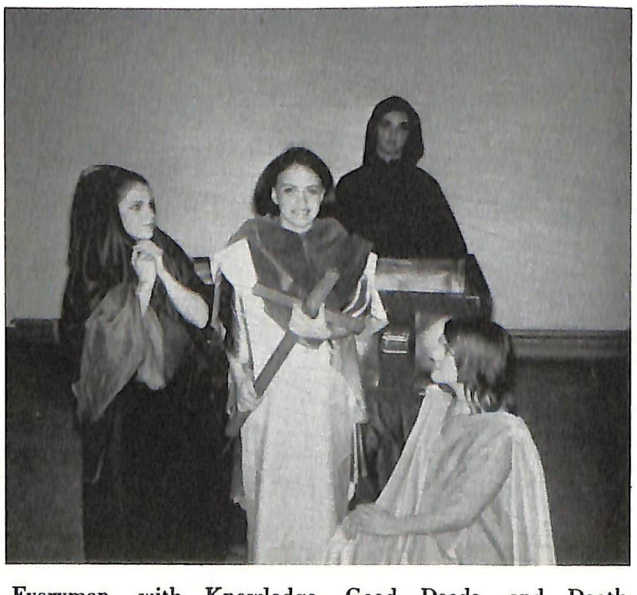
The Haskell Christmas Party put Mrs. Shewman in the Christmas spirit.

Prep Plays

Everyman with his unfaithful friends.

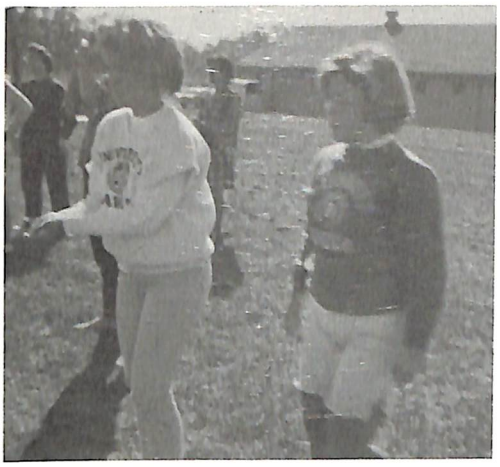
Noah and his Wife kneel with their sons and daughters-in-law.



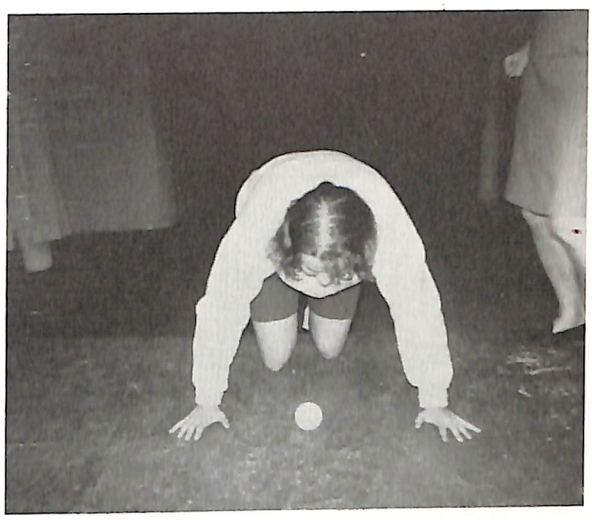
Everyman, with Knowledge, Good Deeds, and Death, in "Everyman".

Above — Greensleeves and the Princesses in the Christmas Play.
Below — Noah and Wife "arguing".

The Prep School presented a Christmas play with the College, and two one-act medieval plays in late February.



Green and Forbush helped the Seniors win Field Day.



And then there are those college acceptance bets. You lost, Mae!

Senior Activities

The whole honored, loved, capable, intelligent, best-of-all Senior Class.

EdLund has the Christmas spirit, but Spillers is looking ahead to New Years Eve.

Never trust a smiling piglet.

Don't study too hard, Robin.

A hard day's night.

Mail is the spice of life.

Whew! We are out tomorrow!

What is the matter, Dillard?

The Abominable Snowman, and friends.
